Look at the postcard. Then answer the questions. You may use the back of the page.

OBSERVE

1. What do you see on the river?

2. What is between the river and the buildings in the background?

3. What does it say at the bottom of the postcard?

THINK

4. Do you think the riverfront looked exactly like what the artist drew?

5. Which parts of the drawing do you think the artist added as "improvements"?

APPLY

6. We can't see the writing on the back of the postcard. If you had just bought the postcard in 1875, what message would you write about the Sacramento waterfront?
