At Home: Have your child write sentences using proper punctuation.
Read the description of Carly’s first day at camp. Circle the mistakes and rewrite the paragraph.

I woke up early. it was the first day of camp. I didn’t know what to expect. Would I know anyone in my group. Would we do things I like to do? Would we swim in the lake or the pool? I had never gone swimming outside before?

The bus was already filled with campers. I looked nervously down the aisle? Then I saw Lisa. she had been on my soccer team. I sat down next to her. Now I didn’t even mind the rain. It would be fine because I had a friend with me.

Rewrite the letter from Steve fixing any mistakes you might find.

Dear Chris,

What great news. I’m so happy to hear that you are coming to visit next month. wow, I can’t believe it’s been a year since you were last here. I already have plans for things to do. I’ll give you some hints. Bring your sleeping bag. Pack a flashlight. Don’t forget the bug spray. yes, we’re going camping.

I hope you’ll do me another favor. Ask your dad for his chocolate chip cookie recipe. His cookies are the best! Then I’ll practice making them while you are here.

Sincerely yours,
Your favorite cousin,
Steve

• An apostrophe (‘) shows where one or more letters have been left out.

Proofread these paragraphs. Circle any contractions that are not correctly written. Add the apostrophes where they belong.

It's very difficult to share a room. You don't have any space of your own. You can't ever have the whole place to yourself. I had this problem. I shared my room with my brothers. They came in and played when I tried to do homework. We fought all the time. I didn't have a way to get away from everyone!

Then I had an idea. Our attic hadn't been used much. Mom and Dad said that they weren't planning to use all the space. I cleared out an area in the attic. I put up curtains to make it private. I found old furniture that wasn't being used. Suddenly I had an office. It's my own special place. Best of all, my brothers and I aren't fighting anymore! So if you haven't got a place of your own, look around. There might be a special place just waiting for you to find it!

Proofread these lines of dialogue. Circle any adjectives that are incorrectly used or misspelled.

I remember the worse thing that ever happened to me. I woke up before dawn and couldn’t go back to sleep. I turned on the kitchen light and walked through the door. Suddenly, there was something on my face. It was the bigest, scaryiest spider web I had ever seen! I let out the loudest scream I had ever screamed. Then I started to laugh. After all, what was sillyer than getting upset about a spider web?

Rewrite the dialogue. Write the comparative adjectives correctly.
